Directions

Are you arriving by public transport (train)?

Utrecht Central Station, the largest public transportation hub in the Netherlands, is located right next to Central Park. From the station, head towards The Forum, the elevated pedestrian area that connects Utrecht Central Station, the city center, and the Central Business District. The ground floor of Central Park seamlessly connects to The Forum.

Are you coming by bike?

The entrance to the bicycle parking is at the rear of the building (VL Steeg). Bicycles may be parked in the designated bike racks. Facilities are available for charging the batteries of your electric bike.
